

Starting the Conversation

"How to Begin a Conversation with Your Parents About Aging"

Presented by Lunch with Leaders

Tuesday, May 2, 2017

11:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

Arlington Chamber of Commerce

Moritz Boardroom

As America ages, more and more people are living longer, healthier lives. While improved medical options enable many seniors to live independent and active lives, a significant number will eventually need assistance with daily tasks due to the onset of age-related problems. Our goal in this program is to educate you about the aging process and how to partner and have a conversation with your loved ones on their journey in all places life can go.

Join us and learn how to give yourself, and your aging parents, the gift of conversation because the truth is, if you think about their future they will too!
